

[Received 3/17/2011 in response to article on Home Page under Agent/Company Issues called "350 Most Admired Companies."]

Dear NAAFA,

I have a thought on the article you posted on the homepage called "350 Most Admired Companies." Where's American Family?

In my opinion unethical and immoral companies would never make a "most admired" list. These companies can fool the crazy judges and judicial system, but they cannot fool the consumers/the public/the employees!