

Dear NAAFA,
first let me say, great job on keeping agents informed on whats up with american family. I look forward every year when you post there pay schedules for the company higher ups and district managers. I can't wait to see this years salarys. I wonder where they hide the airplane cost in this years annual report.

[Agent chooses to remain anonymous }