Dear Naafa,

I want to thank you for all you do. I have been an agent for a long time. Over the years I have been promised policy transfers but have never received them. Even with the new "so called" guidelines I have been passed over. Obviously this affects me not only financially but also emotionally. I can't help but wonder is there something wrong with me? Am I not as good as the other agents? They always publish policy counts in the All American. I would not even want to be listed in there because after all these years of hard work, I feel inferior. When I started with this company many years ago, I was excited and loved the company. Now every day, I have to wonder if I will get fired even though I have done nothing wrong. The good old boys club is still rampant.
